CLASS HISTORY

When we first started school, we had a fairly large class of forty pupils. We may have been little, but we surely made big problems. Mrs. Hansen made it through the year. The "old timers" which have made it all the way through are: Dean Alison, Verla Becker, Lynn Bland, the swinging Bockhauses Rose Mary and Dale, Diana Buller, little shy John Burnett, Patricia Ferguson, Chuck Gleason, Dennis Gonzales, John Gonzalez, the one and only Charles Hanley, Terri Homewood, Doug Knauss, Carol Koehn, Cynthia Koehn, Jeanne McGinn, Pam Nightingale, Cheryl Penner, Jan Peterson, drummer David Pownell, Greg Ropp, Eugene Schauf, Mitch Scharff, innocent-looking Loretta Seiler, Kim Sheffler, Cindy Siemens, Eric Sooter, Jeff Trego, Alan Welch, Roger Zarnowski. The others which were with us were Mary Abeyta, Lasea Bittorf, Sally Goodwin, Cindy Jefferson, Gina King and Tim Pepper.

As we ventured into first grade, Mrs. Hoff and Miss Schmidt welcomed us eagerly. We gained Sharon Becker, Curtis Decker, Kochi Dennis, Cynthia Johnson, Charles Koehn, Elizabeth Koehn, Loren Koehn, Jayne Richstatter, Ronald Bogunovich, Sue Foley, Jan Richardson, Joe Sprout, Anita Sprout, David Wiebe, Sam Wilmore and "gallant" Nate Williams. Those who left us were Cindy Jefferson, Sue Foley, David Wiebe, and Sam Wilmore.

As we hopped along, we took a giant leap into second grade with Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Sayers as our teachers. The newcomers into our terrific class were Linda Dyck, Danny Harris, Dennis Carter, Cynthia Hathaway, Pamela Means, and Scott Stone. We were terribly sorry to see Dennis Carter, Danny Harris, Scott Stone, and Jan Richardson leave us.

The next big step was going into third grade. Mrs. Sneed and Mrs. Thomas held out open arms for us. That year we added five new classmates: Hector Garcia, Cindy Jefferson for the second time, quiet Jane Hughes, Philip Schroeder and the Sprouts, for the second time, Anita and Joe. That year Mary Abeyta, Lasea Bittorf, Ronald Bogunovich, Gina King, and Anita and Joe Sprout left us.

Most of us were lucky to make it to the fourth grade the next year. Our teachers were Miss Lehman and Miss Reimer. Although we had some trouble makers in our classes we got along pretty well without too many problems. The people who marched into our class that year were Jeff Ewert, rambunctious Lynnwood Fast, Crystal Wall, and William Stevenson. We were grieved by the loss of Little Sally Goodwin.

Our class in the fifth grade was a real thriller. Mrs. Rea and Miss Neufeld entertained us throughout the year. We gained Becky Balling, ambitious Peggy Edge, Patty Kerns, Mevelyne Jannagin, and Jennifer Warren. We lost Hector Garcia, Lynnwood Fast, Mevelyne Jannagin, Pamela Means, Tim Pepper, and Crystal Wall.

The next year in sixth grade, brought Lynnwood Fast, for the second time, Randy Busse, Mike Casey, and wheely-popping Kim Brashear to our class. Becky Balling, Patty Kerns, and Cynthia Hathaway left us.

In seventh grade we were joined by students from Bentley and Gardenview plus a couple of others. They were Celeste Alldritt, Brad Bear, Verle Holdeman, Kathy Jacob, Debbie Phillips, Gary Vaughn, Alan Warrell, Pat Wheat, Debbie Mosshart, Jim Rains, and Kenneth Stringer. We lost during the year Debbie Mosshart, Jim Rains, Kenneth Stringer, and Philip Schroeder.

Our last and most wonderful year was climaxed by the fact that we won first place in all three sports, basketball, softball, and track. Our teachers were Mr. Hanley and Mr. Peterson. Our newcomers were Jim Antonio, Sandy Held, Dale Koehn, Arnie Olsen, Karl Churning, Loveable Lane Smith, Susan Eden, and Vickie Harper. Missing from our clan at the end of this year is Cathy Patzlauff.

We thank all the teacher and staff who have made our years enjoyable. We will always remember Halstead Grade School.

TO THE STAFF

We leave Mr. Hanley tree seed for his bare spot in the forest.
We will Mr. Peterson an easier 8th grade science book.
To Mrs. Buller we leave a horn for her car so she can get through the traffic jam.
To Mrs. Regier we leave an all-weather jogging suit.
We leave Mrs. Schaeke a pair of knee socks to get used to.
We leave Mr. Bissitt a softer, shorter, smaller, simpler...paddle.

To Miss Stucky we leave a rattle to amuse her restless music students.

To Mrs. MacDonald we leave a beanie for next year's art fair.

We will Mr. Kuhlmann an iron fist.

We leave Mrs. Hersh, the nurse, another Hershey bar, only this time it has almonds.

We leave the custodians a ladder to get the paper wads off the ceiling.

To the cooks we leave some very sexy hair nets.

To Mrs. Vaughn we leave a computer so she can relax after being with us.

Last, and by all means least, we leave Mr. Gray a new set of rules HE can follow!
